WINDOWS are ever present in our lives. When we came to school as sophomores we looked through the windows with anticipation of what our years at M.H.S. would hold for us. When we departed for a summer or a lifetime, we looked out the windows and imagined our future. At the same moment we saw in the panes a reflection of the past year.

When we arrived at school, sights and sounds revealed to us the activities of the coming day and the following week. We traveled to our classed in various moods
--often intent in last minute cramming. Often we paused in our busy day to relieve our heavy-laden minds.

Our class participation and long hours of study increased the knowledge that we were constantly pursuing. Teachers and counselors were always willing to help us with our daily problems and with the planning of our future.

Mixing school work and school activities made our years at M. H. S. exciting and unforgettable. From the wild enthusiasm of a sports event to a tense moment in a play or in a variety show to the relaxed discussion in a club meeting, we were thankful for the diversion that these activities gave us. As we depart at the year's end, we remember the friends with whom we shared our lives.

Dedication

With great pleasure we dedicate the 1964 Manhigan to Carl and Martha Thomas, who, for many years have served the students of M.H.S., unselfishly giving of their time and energy.

Among Mrs. Thomas' activities are teaching speech and dramatics, directing senior class plays and presenting numerous programs to Civic groups. Mr. Thomas, who at one time served as treasurer of the Athletic Department, at present teaches comparative government and American history and acts as head of the History Department. During the 1950-51 school year they were co-advisors of the senior class.

Through their combined efforts the community as well as the school have received immeasurable benefits.

Going places.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas

Miss Carol Rooks
479 Louise Ave.
Mansfield, Ohio

Dear Miss Rooks:

I am returning herewith the pictures of the five contestants for Queen of Mansfield Senior High.

I have indicated my selection on the back of each photo.

It was an honor to be your judge and a very difficult choice to make as all of the young ladies are most attractive.

Please accept all my best wishes for a successful yearbook.

Sincerely,

George Chahinis

ACADEMICS

BOARD OF EDUCATION

SUPERINTENDENTS

Seated: Mr. W. W. Zinser, superintendent of schools.

Standing: Mr. L. L. Mishey, assistant superintendent, in charge of elementary education; Dr. Edwin A. Fensch, assistant superintendent, in charge of secondary education; Mr. Glen Robinson, assistant superintendent, in charge of buildings.

Mr. Zinser and his able assistants, working together with the Mansfield Board of Education, saw the city schools through another successful year despite the problems caused by the program of financial austerity.

The city of Mansfield, as well as the faculty and students in the schools, are very appreciative of these people.

SCHOOL BOARD

Left to right: Mrs. Frieda Forrest, clerk; Mr. George Murray; Mr. Burton Preston, president; Mr. David McGinty; Dr. William Houston; Dr. Marvin Dees, vice president.

PRINCIPALS

MR. ROBERT GLASS

Mr. Robert Glass has served as principal of MHS for the past eight years. After graduation from Jamestown High School, he attended Cedarville College, the Ohio State University, from which he received both his A. B. and M. A. degrees, and the University of New Mexico. Presently, Mr. Glass holds membership in Rotary Club, the Y. M. C. A. Board, the University Club and the Junior Achievement Board.

Mrs. Glass teaches at Johnny Appleseed Junior High School, while their children, Roger, seventeen, and Mary Ann, fourteen, attend Ontario schools.

In his spare time, Mr. Glass enjoys golfing, reading, gardening, and spectator sports.

Under the able supervision of these men, Senior High has become known for the ever-increasing achievements of the faculty and the students.

MR. ARLO PLOUGH

Mr. Arlo Plough has just completed his first year as assistant principal. When asked how he enjoyed the year, he replied, "It was one of the best years of my life."

Mr. Plough's impressive training for his teaching career includes attending Bethany College, Iowa Pre-Flight, Kent State University, from which he received both his A. B. and M. Ed. degrees, the University of New Mexico and Western Illinois University. Belonging to several educators' organizations, as well as Phi Delta Kappa, and being active in various church activities, Mr. Plough finds himself quite busy.

Mrs. Plough is a physical education teacher here at Senior High. Two daughters, Gwen, six, and Creta, five, complete the family.

Mansfield Public Schools

March 19, 1964

TO: Senior High School Manhigan Staff
RE: Teacher Retirements

OVER A CENTURY OF SERVICE

The Mansfield City Board of Education and school administration, as well as the entire teaching profession of Mansfield, salute four staff members retiring from service this year, whose combined experience totals 130 years. One hundred and ten years of this total service has been in the city schools of Mansfield.

Experienced, dedicated, conscientious people constitute the backbone of any organization and to this end, the city schools' staff will sorely miss:

Gladys MacDonald
Muriel Wirick
W.B. Huber
R.D. Schaaf

The school system wishes for all four a long and happy retirement.

W.W. Zinser
Superintendent of Schools

ABLE ASSISTANTS

Main office.

Counselors' office.

Student assistants played an important role in the smooth functioning of our school offices and our library. Monitors from the main and attendance offices aided the administration by running errands and answering phone calls. Counselors' office workers doubled as typists and receptionists. Library assistants were efficient student librarians.

All student aids deserve the thanks of the entire school for doing their jobs so well.

OUR SCANDINAVIAN BROTHERS

Gisle Schmidt

Goran Radstrom

This year MHS was honored to have two foreign students, Gisle Schmidt from Norway and Goran Radstrom from Sweden, both seniors. Gisle, brought to MHS through the American Field Service, spent his school year with the family of Dr. and Mrs. Edward Beilstein and their son Doug, who acted as his American brother. "Gus," as he was known by some, was noted for his trumpet playing in the band and orchestra. He also acted in the Senior Class Play.

Goran, or "John" as we knew him, came to MHS through International Christian Youth Council. He resided with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kennedy and their son Larry. "John" was active in sports, especially track and basketball, and he performed in Varsity Varieties.

Our foreign students played an important part in international understanding in both the school and community.

Although their stay was short, friendships were formed which will remain in our memories for many years to come.

The famous Mansfield Senior High School Varsity Marching Band, under the direction of Mr. Percy Hall, again entertained thousands of football fans during four home games and six away games. The concert band travelled to Fremont and Newark for band contests and gave one spring performance.

PROMISE OF A GREAT BAND!

Reserve dance band.

Showing the makings of another great band was this year's reserve band of 40 members. Though the band seemed small, emphasis was placed on quality not quantity. This year's band marched in four spring concerts.

Lonnie Them, Linda Smallstey, Kay DeLong,
Joanne Letizia, Vicki Forrester, Randy Craig.

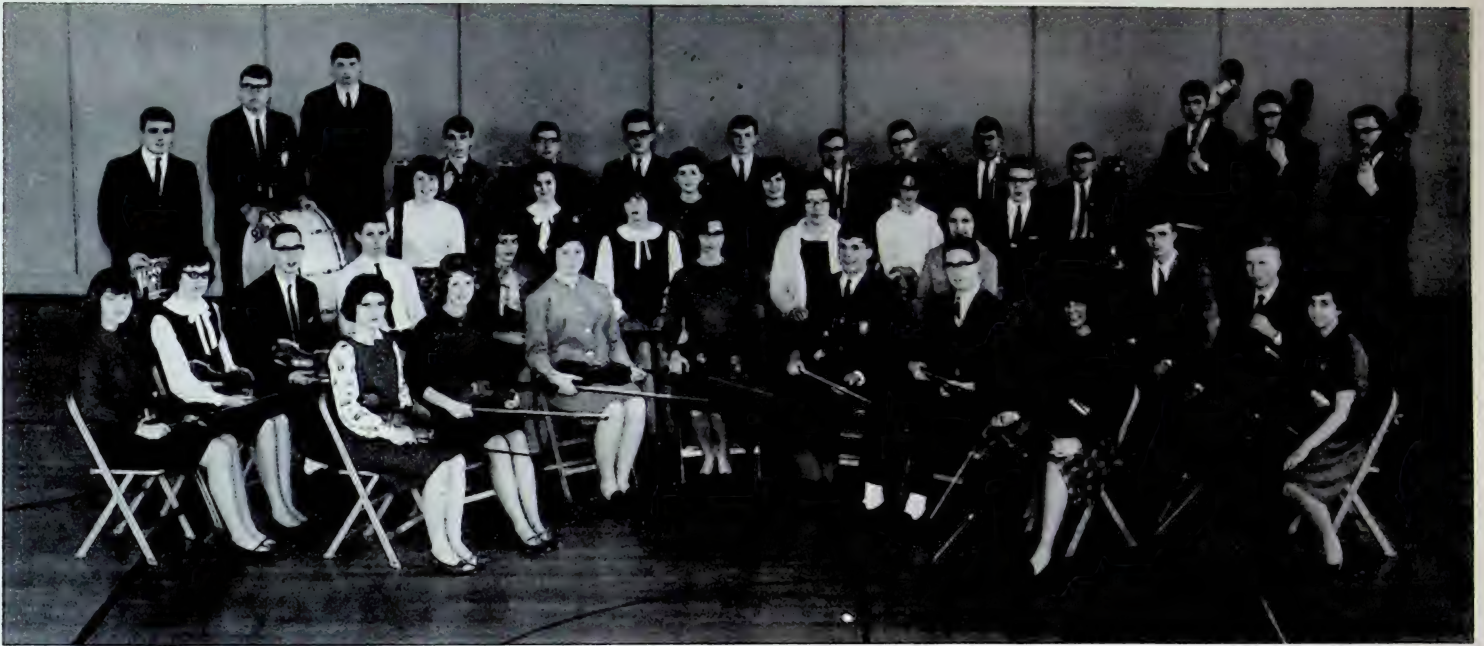

Stick 'em up.

STRINGS OF OUR HEART

Fine musical talent, as well as hours of hard work, have helped to make this year's Mansfield Senior High Orchestra an outstanding one. The orchestra participated in a district contest and gave a spring concert. Praise must also go to the orchestra for its help in the homecoming assembly. The outstanding musical background provided by the orchestra contributed greatly to the success of Homecoming.

"TINKERING WITH TIME"

Presenting the Beatles....

This year's Varsity Varieties, one of the finest in the history of the annual production, transported the audience backward in time into the Egyptian era and forward into the future. This magical process was performed when a hard-working scientist and his zany wife tried "Tinkering With Time."

Les Mademoiselles!

VARSIITY VARIETIES 1964

A glittering array of student talent, colorful costumes, and remarkable ingenuity was the result of countless hours of hard work on the part of all the Varsity Varieties' committees, the producers, the directors, and the entire cast. Members of the cast included sophomores and juniors as well as seniors.

SENIORS PRESENT...

"I ain't too busy!"

The Class of 1964 presented Elliot Nugent's delightful comedy, "The Poor Nut," April 16th and 17th. A talented cast, under the direction of Martha Thomas, made the multi-set production one of the most entertaining senior class plays ever presented.

CLUBS

WE LOVE YOU, TYGERS!

Here a spirit jug, there a spirit jug. This year's Pep Club made a new giant spirit jug and then, later in the year, sold miniature jugs as a money-making project and also as a fulfillment of their purpose, "To promote school spirit and enthusiasm toward our athletic events." Headed by President Dick Whitney, Vice President John Enderle, Secretary Rose Timan, Treasurer Tecca Wilging, and advised by Mrs. Evilsizor, the Pep Club organized all our pep assemblies and planned and made decorations for the football banquet. They also sponsored a poster contest, sold shakers, and served as ushers at football games.

GIRLS ON THE GO!

This year the Girls' Athletic Association did six weeks of bowling at Park Lanes. One of their main projects was the Spring Sports Banquet. Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Evilsizor, and Mrs. Plough were advisors while Cora Jackson was president; Gloria Jones, vice president; Brenda Rush, secretary; Yolanda Cox, treasurer. This organization offered physical activity in both group and individual participation.

The perfect pyramid!

DOUBLE DUTY

Front row: Frost, Theaker, Snyder, Prats, Smalley, Wolf, Owings.
Row 2: Mr. Cindrich, Nye, Dalton, Roth, Schmidt, Radstrom, Lautsbaugh, Cindrich, Moore.

The original Senior Hi-Y, advised by Mr. Ray Gerrell, performed many commendable service projects this year. Some of these included ringing bells for the Salvation Army, visiting bedridden patients to help the Cancer Society, participating in the annual Student Council Christmas basket drive, and singing Christmas carols at some of the community nursing homes. Providing leadership in the club were Mac Flinn, president; Ralph Ludwig, vice president; Reese Mills, secretary; and George Shoemaker, treasurer.

Mr. Joe Cindrich advised the new Senior Hi-Y. They, too, had a Christmas basket project and they also donated food to the Children's Home. A spaghetti dinner, a car wash, Halloween candy sales, and the WHLO basketball game comprised their money-making projects. President Joe Prats, Vice President Denny Frost, Treasurer Jeff Smalley, and Secretary Denny Snyder served as officers.

Row 2: Hoffer, Forrest, Wright, Dill, Brenner, Enderle.

GIRLS SPREAD JOY

Row 2: Brubach, Grable, Faber, Ford, Stephens, Wilging, McGinty, Socea.

Row 3: Worner, Holmes, Taylor, Adams, Creps, Rodgers, Beobel, Slaybaugh, Meredith, Timan.

Washington, here we come!

Mrs. Norma Domer was again selected as advisor of Senior Y-Teens. Officers, all from Malabar, were Elin Linne, president; Sallie Sweet, vice president; Rocky Mertler, treasurer; and Jenny Frizzell and Marilyn Meese, secretaries.

This year the girls filled Christmas baskets for families during the holiday season. They also sent "voices across the sea" from families here who had loved ones in the armed forces.

Projects sponsored by the girls in order to raise money for their trip to Washington this spring were car washes, bake sales, and dances.

During the three years the girls have been together, they have succeeded in establishing Christian fellowship among themselves and in helping others.

FORMING HI IDEALS

Here's a good idea!

The purpose of the Junior Hi-Y was to promote the welfare of the community and to maintain a sportsmanlike conduct of their members. With Mr. Sullivan as the advisor, these boys elected Alan Fliegel as president; Ron Klein, vice president; John Masquelier, treasurer; Mike Jackson, secretary; and Tom Phelps, chaplain. Among their projects and activities were contributing Christmas baskets, holding successful dances, and having parties.

Row 2: Radick, Phelps, Kline, Boyd, Grassel, Davis, Haag.

TEENS BENEFIT COMMUNITY

Old clothes served a good purpose.

This year Junior Y-Teens were quite active. They had a candy sale and then donated an incubator to an orphanage. Sending clothes overseas and holding a rummage sale included a number of their other projects. The officers were Sherry Sowers, president; Resa Nichols, vice president; Rita Constance, secretary; Linda Eyerly, treasurer; Kathy Simon, chaplain; Nancy Dinges, sergeant-at-arms; Laurie Shiplet, Inter-Club Council representative. The advisor was Mrs. Gloria Blauser. To provide an organization in which teen-age girls can aid the community and help each other by creating high standards of Christian living is their purpose.

BUILDING CHARACTER

M-m-m-m, delicious!

This is a good poster for our bake sale.

This year's Sophomore Hi-Y elected Dave Schroeder as their president; Roger Gump, vice president; Greg Loiko, secretary; Dan Coe, treasurer; and Mark Hoy, chaplain. The club chose Mr. Davis as an advisor. Among their money-making projects were a dance, a car wash, and a bake sale. For a service project they worked at the Geriatric Center. "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian living" is this organization's purpose.

DEMONSTRATING Y-TEEN SPIRIT

A busy committee.

This year the Sophomore Y-Teens elected Debbie Meese as their president; Betsy Schlegel, vice-president; Andy Boyle, secretary; and Kathy Murphy, treasurer.

These girls went to a county rest home to entertain the residents there. Being interested in crippled children, they had a speaker talk to them about the hopes and drawbacks of the less-fortunate children.

Miss Ann Bookwalter, serving as advisor, helped the girls reach their goal of understanding and spreading Christian ideas.

Religion plays a big part.

OPENING THE DOOR TO SUCCESS

 Row 3: Hubbard, Hollinger, Hetler, Schmidt, Radstrom, Dean, Flinn, Prats, Cindrich, Fox, Ferguson.

Symbols of leadership.

Key Club has social activities, too.

The boys of Key Club were selected on the basis of some type of leadership in high school. Officers were Jim Berry, president; John Enderle, vice president; Howard Edelstein, secretary; and Joe Prats, treasurer. Their advisors this year were Mr. O'Brien and Mr. Cales.

They provided various services to the community. During the Christmas season, the members raised money for the needy by working for the Salvation Army. Other projects sponsored were a magazine drive for the Malabar Library, Kiwanis Pancake Day, and a Christmas party for needy children.

The Key Club works to build unification and recognition of the leaders in high school.

FUTURE LEADERS LEARN

Last fall Mr. Glass chose outstanding boys in school to be Junior Rotarians. These boys all had high grades and were active in school affairs. Every week five of these Junior Rotarians went with Mr. Glass to the Mansfield Leland Hotel to eat lunch with the Rotary Club. The boys enjoyed interesting programs on subjects which pertained to our modern world. These luncheons permitted the boys to meet and talk with the leaders of our community and provided an opportunity for the Rotarians to learn of the activities in our school.

L. Them.

This group of five boys constituted the stage crew. Mr. Walker was the advisor; Lonnie Them, manager; Jim Goff, assistant manager; George Rusiska, stage manager; John Bechtel, electrician, and Walter Hunsinger, property manager. This year they helped with Homecoming, Senior Class Play, Track Assembly, V. V., and the Christmas program. Their purpose was to organize and maintain properties and equipment of the stage.

"This is the correct way."

"Don't touch that live wire!"

ROLL 'EM

The boys on the audio visual staff once again sacrificed much of their time to provide essential services to the school.

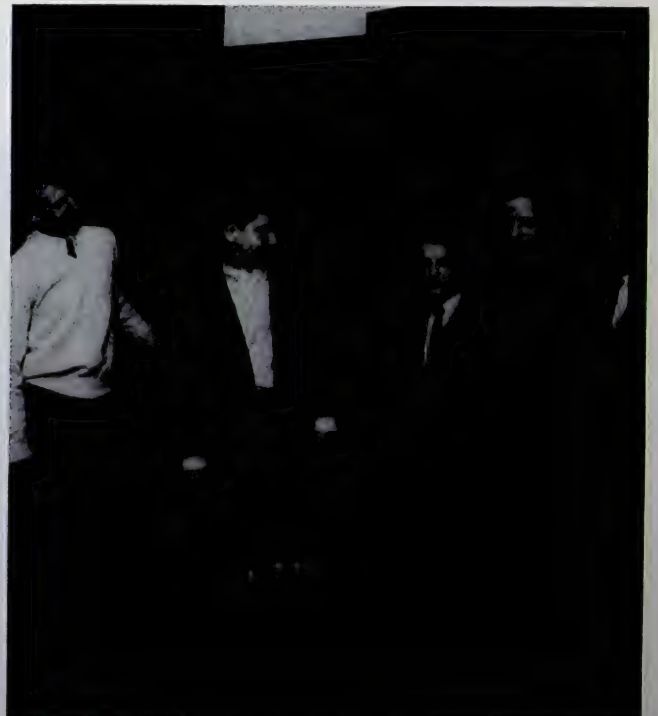

These nine boys aided classes in furthering education in an enjoyable way--with film strips, records, tapes, and opaque projections. The public address system for basketball games and other sports was also under their supervision.

OCCUPATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

Vocational Club officers and Mr. Finley.

This year the Vocational Club fixed Christmas baskets for the needy. They planned a trip to Wright-Patterson Air Base Museum this spring. In order to raise money for the trip, the members sponsored a candy sale and a dance on December 13.

Officers of the club were Melvin Wiseman, president; Darrell Greenhill, vice-president; Nancy Mason, secretary; and Marilyn Rupanovic, treasurer.

The Vocational Club gave the students in that department a chance to participate in both business and social activities.

WE AIM TO AID

Our student Red Cross organization served our school and community again this year by helping people in hospitals and nursing homes. They sponsored a paperback book drive in the school, and delivered the books they collected to area hospitals. At Christmas time, they caroled at a rest home.

Miss Chipps and Miss Lucas were the advisors. The officers were Alan Gregg, president; Kathy Meister, vice president; Barb Keller, secretary; and Joyce Keller, treasurer.

TYGER FAITH TEENS

We live by the Golden Rule.

Tyger Faith Teens, a new version of Youth for Christ, promoted Christian fellowship among the student body. Mr. Sauder was the advisor.

Quiz teams were organized in which various members competed. Students had to know their Bibles thoroughly for quiz meets. A basketball team was also organized by the club.

Stan Beal was elected president. Dale Heimberger, Polly Allen, and Liz Shook served as vice-presidents of different committees.

A little louder this time.

LEARNING NOW, TEACHING LATER

Mrs. Gates and Miss Howard offered their services as advisors to Future Teachers this year. Elected as officers were Kathy Klippel, president; Glen Lambert, vice-president; Diane Meister, secretary; and Jane Beal, treasurer.

Members visited different schools to observe teachers, students, and methods. They also assisted at the Science Fair. Through this club, students were interested in the teaching profession.

This meeting will now come to order.

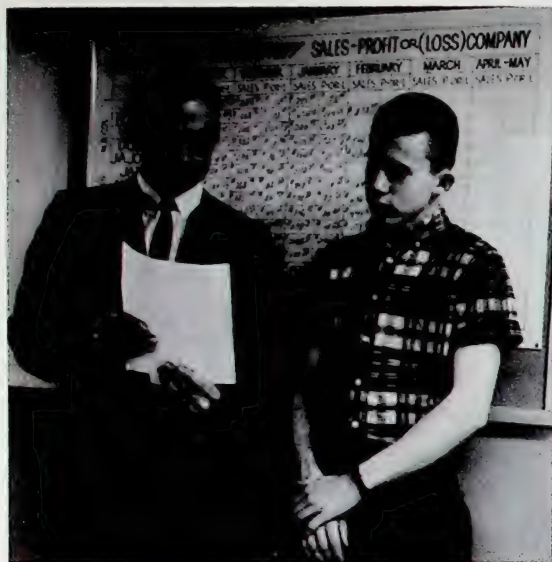

Let's try this for our next program.

FUTURE FINANCIERS

How were sales this month?

They're top quality hangers.

Be careful with that drill.

Junior Achievement gave students a chance to operate as individual businesses on a small scale. Mr. John Ahart served as the executive director of the seventeen different companies, each of which had a different set of officers.

Organization was the main project at the beginning of the year. Each company chose a name and a product which was featured at a Trade Fair. An awards banquet was held in May.

The Junior Achievement offered students a chance to learn about business through actual practice.

Organization makes perfection.

This is part of the job, too.

MASTERMINDS

Seated: McCoy, Keller, Selfman, Timan, Owings, Meister, Smith.
Standing: Spiggle, Hamilton, Betsch, Foster, Kennedy, Whitney, Enderle.

The National Honor Society was responsible for College Night this year which was held October 29. They also wrote a "Creed for Youth" for the Ohio Youth Commission.

In order to be in the Honor Society, students had to be in the top ten per cent of the Senior Class and in extra-curricular activities.

The officers this year are shown below. Seated are Larry Kennedy, treasurer, and Reinhold Betsch, president. Standing are Diane Meister, vice-president; Miss Spiggle, advisor; and Lee Owings, secretary.

 Row 3: Jarboe, Schoonmaker, Timan, Bungart, Dixon, Konves, Haag, Dent.

This year the French Club members elected Bob Brown as president, Bud Huber as vice-president, Carol Davis as secretary, and Helen Bissman as treasurer. They had many successful projects throughout the year including a French Club dinner, a talk by the foreign student from St. Peter's, a Christmas program, and a trip to Cleveland to see the play "Becket." To help French students learn more about the customs of France and to help them master the language to a greater extent was the club's aim.

Observing French customs.

Don't you agree?

EL CIRCULO ESPANOL

The Spanish Club was very active this year. One of the first of their many projects was the presentation of a Spanish play. They also carried on discussions of Latin American customs and studied some of their famous foods. Making a huge pinata filled with candy and prizes was a huge contribution to the language party at Christmas. Miss Wheeler, a teacher here at Senior High, who has done extensive travel in South America was a guest speaker at one of the meetings.

Miss Spiggle, advisor, helped to further the interests and knowledge of Spanish-speaking countries to her students.

Officers were Jeff Hamilton, president; Linda Berry, vice-president; Laura Kissh, secretary; and Meredith McCoy, treasurer.

An exciting field trip!

Front row: Miss Spiggle, Hamilton.
Row 2: McCoy, Kissh, Berry.

DER DEUTSCHE VEREIN

In order "to further interest in the German language and culture," the German Club had a variety of interesting programs. They included a Faschings party (German Mardi Gras), two informative talks on the Thirty Years War and the Reformation, and attendance at St. Peter's German Lutheran church. On the lighter side were a Christmas party in which all language clubs participated, and a sleigh ride. Assisting President Ingrid Wilhelm and Mr. Lenz, the club's advisor, were Vice President Terry Squire, Secretary Evelyn Smith, Corresponding Secretary Kathy Klippel, and Treasurer Tony Hubbard.

Mr. Lenz, Hubbard, Klippel, Smith, Squire.

The famous city of Berlin.

SODALITAS LATINA

The Latin Club was headed by Candie Fluke, president; Mary Williams, vice-president; Pam Sweet, treasurer; Terry Zimmerman, secretary; Miss Howard was the club advisor.

As stated in their constitution, "The purpose of this organization shall be to promote a more thorough knowledge of Roman life, history, and literature; to impart a better understanding of the practical and cultural value of the classics; and to interest other students in the classical languages." To fulfill this purpose, the Latin Club participated in the Christmas party for all language clubs, and had their annual Roman Banquet.

Row 2: Williams, Zimmerman, Sweet.

CHECKMATES

Are you sure of that move?

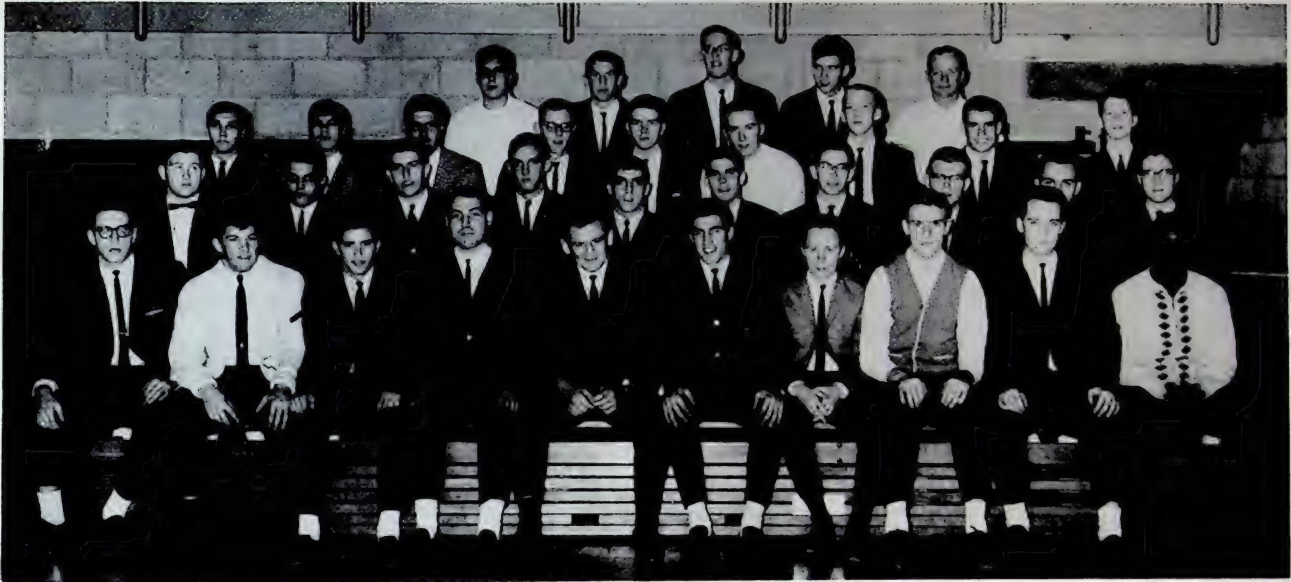

This year's chess club was established to promote the art of chess. Mr. Marchant and Mr. Lenz served as advisors, while Bill Foster was president; Evelyn Smith was vice president; and John Miefert was secretary-treasurer.

Among their activities were the purchase of club chess sets, several team matches with area schools, and a rating tournament.

The big four!

Serving as officers this year were Joe Prats, president; Paul Cindrich, vice president; Howard Forrest, secretary; Rodney Moore, treasurer; Clyde Coe, sergeant-at-arms. Among their many projects were operating the coat check, selling football programs, sponsoring a dance, cleaning the trophy case, sponsoring an athletic picnic for the junior high boys, and having a hayride.

"To promote a better understanding and environment among athletes, who are all working together for the same cause" is the purpose of the Varsity "M" Club.

INTERNATIONAL FRIENDSHIPS

The American Field Service, which pays part of the expenses of the foreign student and provides housing for him, is one of the school's most praiseworthy organizations. In order to obtain their needed money, A. F. S. had a money-making project nearly every month this past year. They sold A. F. S. folders and ribbon candy, had a surprise day, and sponsored a dance, a car wash, and a bake sale. Their advisor was Mr. Beal and their officers were Dick Whitney, president; Jean Bryner, vice president; Peg Adams, secretary; Ingrid Wilhelm, treasurer; Karen Holmes, Americans Abroad chairman; Rose Timan, publicity chairman; and Grace Ford, housing chairman. In order to "promote international good will among participating countries," A. F. S. selects an American to travel overseas under the auspices of the Americans Abroad program.

Mr. Beal, Timan, Bryner, Adams, Holmes, Whitney.

Congratulations on a successful project.

CHE-E-E-SE!

Watch the birdie!

This year there was a newly formed Camera Club. With Mr. Lenz as their advisor, they elected Jim Smucker as the president; Reinhard Metzger, vice-president; Tim Parks, treasurer; and Joella Winbigler, secretary. Among their projects were taking pictures for the Hyphonerian and the Showcase, conducting classes for beginners, and holding contests against other schools. Their worthy purpose was to promote and learn more about photography and its uses.

Hold that pose.

Seated: Metzger, Smucker, Mr. Lenz, Moore, Park.
Standing: Drye, Swarn, Johns, Jones, Bosh, Jordan, Bechtel, Lee, Wycoff, Winbigler, Skiles.

SCIENTIFIC AMERICANS

This year the Science Club sponsored many interesting and informative programs "to promote interest in science." Mr. C. Reidenour presented a program on hypnotism and hypnotized several students to demonstrate this science. Mr. William Lantz, formerly a math teacher at Senior High, spoke about non-Euclidian geometry. Later in the year the club visited the National Cylinder Gas Company.

Mr. Marchant, in his first year of teaching here, advised the club. Doug Beilstein served as president; Terry Squire, vice president; Evelyn Smith, secretary; and Mike Arbutina, treasurer.

Be careful with that nitroglycerin.

MEDICAL CLUB

Front row: Heiser, I. Wilhelm, Beal, Eyerly, Nye, Muth.
Row 2: Bissman, Smith, E. Wilhelm, Griffith, Nichols, Mrs. Stanfield.

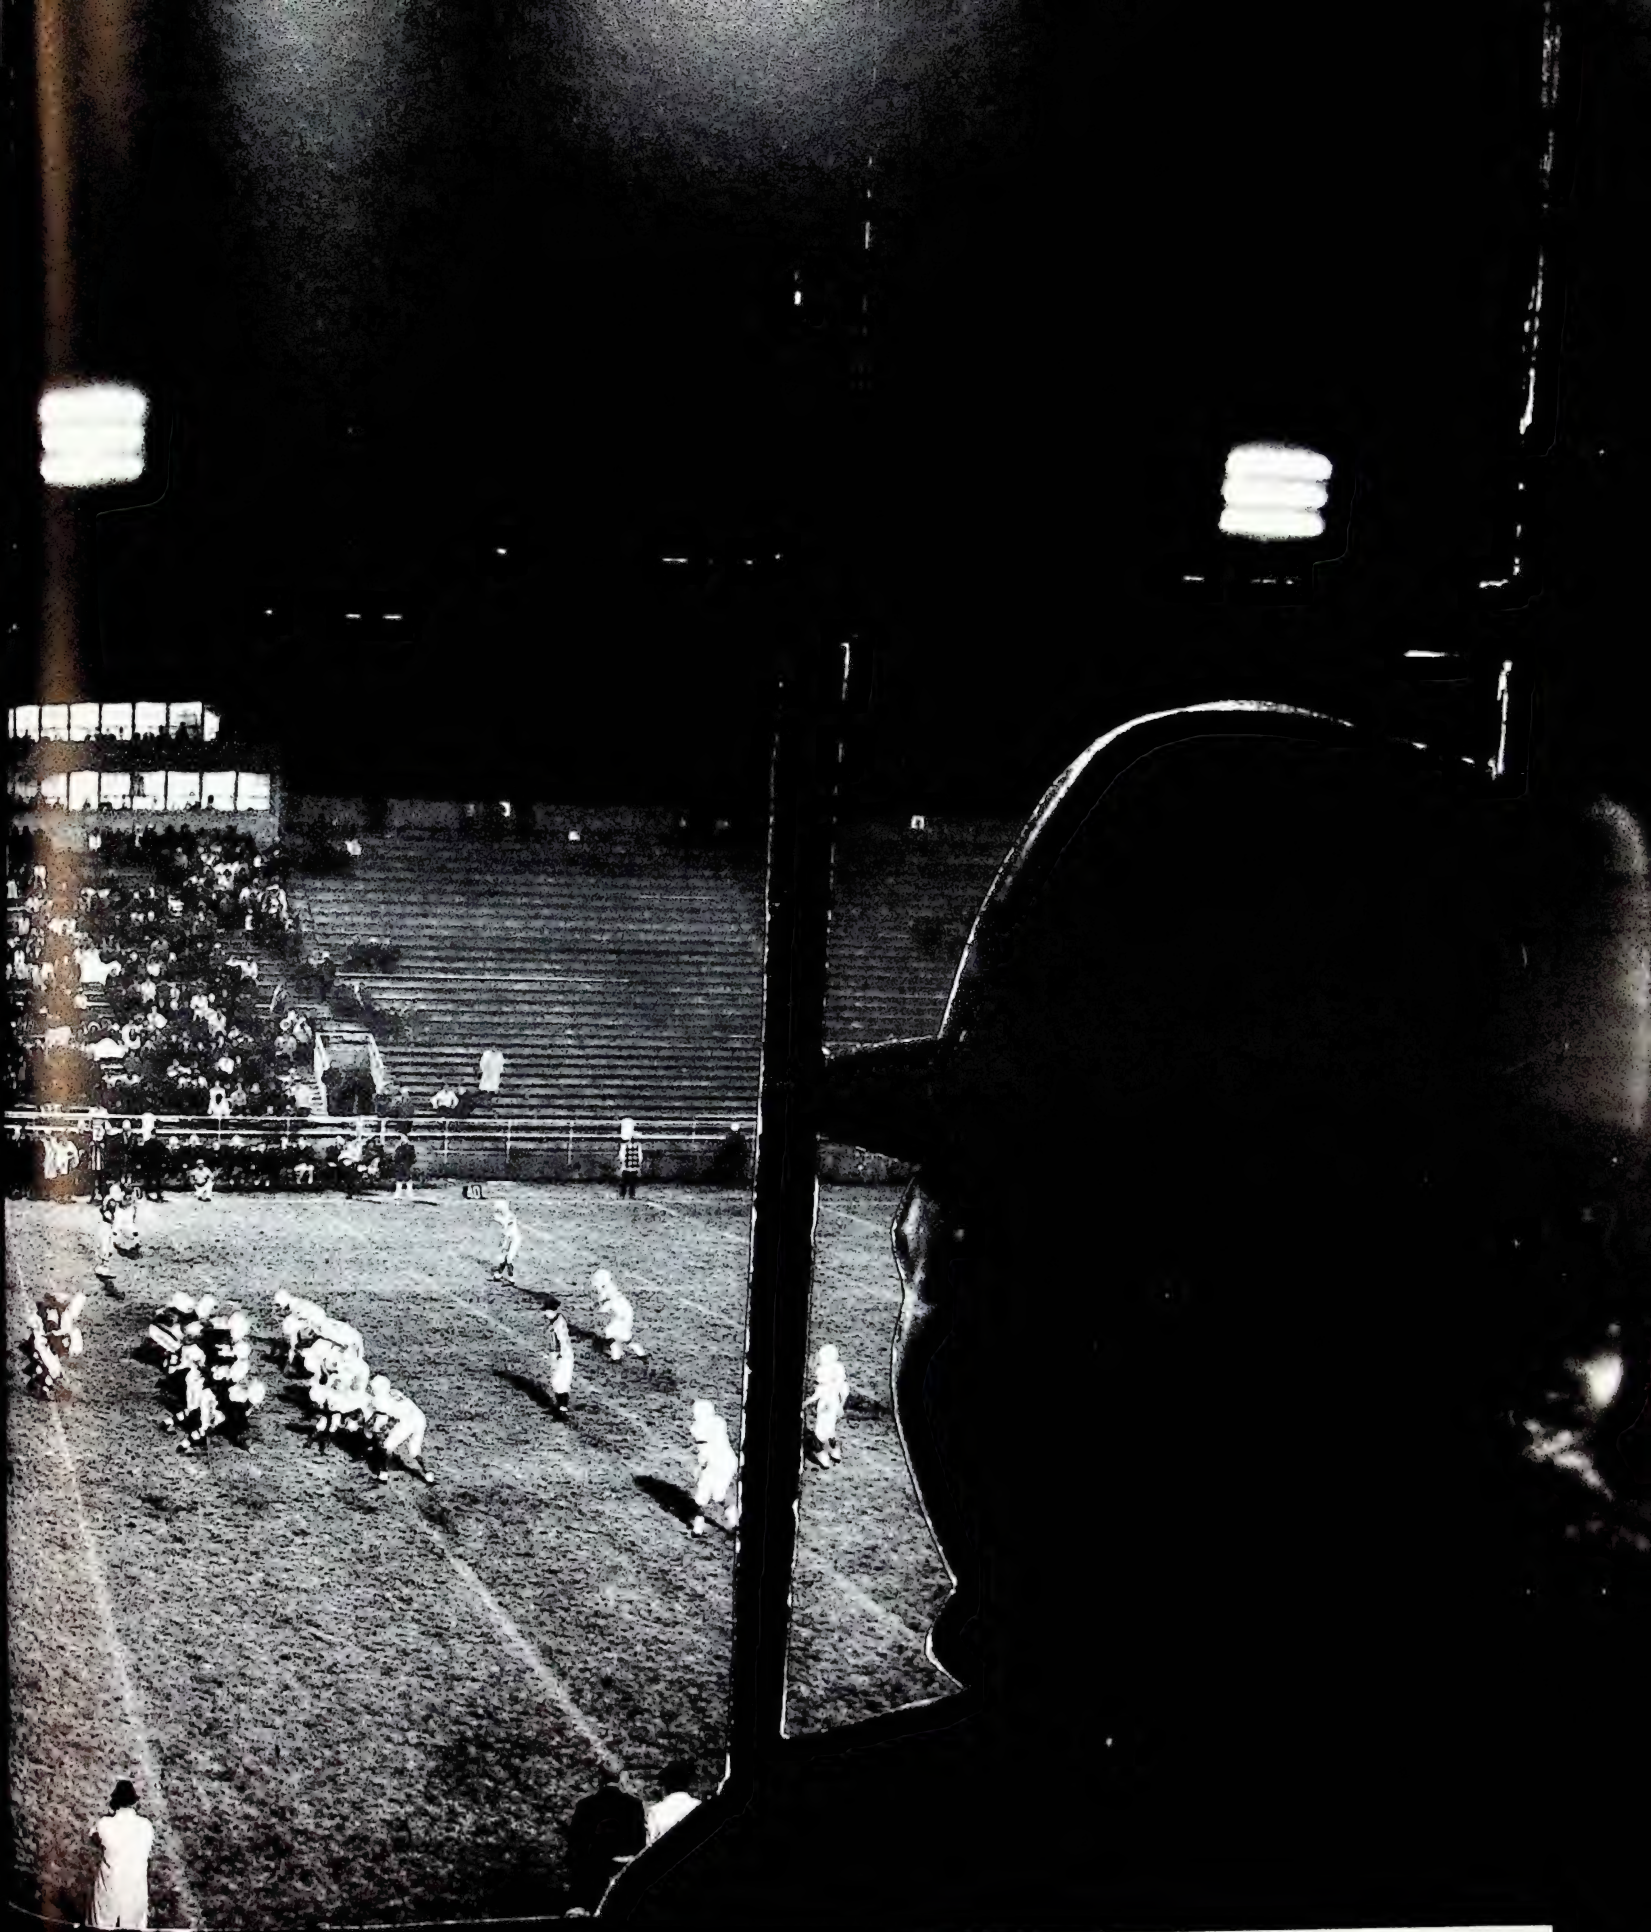

Let's have this movie next month.

This year the Medical Club was organized for students in the field of medicine. The advisors were Mrs. Stanfield and Dr. Shafer. Students from several area schools were able to join. Pat Arnett was elected president; Bob Muth, vice president; Ingrid Wilhelm, secretary-treasurer; and Nancy Griffith, building representative. They had doctors speak on medical topics and observed movies and operations.

SPORTS

FOOTBALL COACHES

After twelve years of coaching at Harrison and Woodward High Schools, Jim Dougherty came to Senior High in 1962 to take over the reins of Head Football Mentor. During his fourteen years of coaching, his football teams have run up an outstanding record of 91-38-8.

Coach Dougherty was graduated from Bellvue High School in Bellvue, Kentucky, and for two years he attended the University of Miami in Oxford, Ohio, where he made All-Ohio Honorable Mention. Later he served in the Army for two years before entering the University of Cincinnati. In 1948 he was voted the most valuable player on his team and also was named to the first Mid-American Conference Team while at Cincinnati. There he was graduated in that same year.

When Coach Dougherty was asked why he made a career of coaching, he said that he likes to see his boys develop their athletic abilities.

Head Coach Jim Burkett and Assistant George Swank.

Head Basketball Coach Jim Burkett was born and raised in Toledo, Ohio, where he was graduated from De Villbiss High School. While attending high school, he participated in basketball and baseball. He then entered Bowling Green State University, where he was on the varsity basketball squad. He was graduated from this university with a bachelor of science degree.

His first coaching assignment was at Thompson High School near Bellvue, Ohio. In 1959 Coach Burkett came to Senior High, serving as assistant basketball coach for the 1962-1963 season, when he became head coach, leading his team to a successful record.

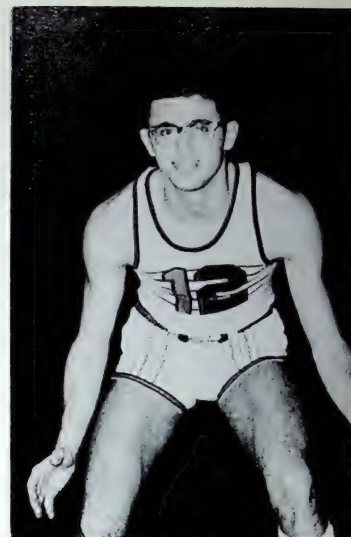

When Coach Burkett was asked why he enjoys coaching as a career, he replied, "In many ways athletics prepare a person for future years. I know what athletics can do for a person because I know what they have done me me. I feel pleased to be a part of preparing young men for later life." Coach Burkett summed up his feeling toward sports when he stated, "Sports have been my life."

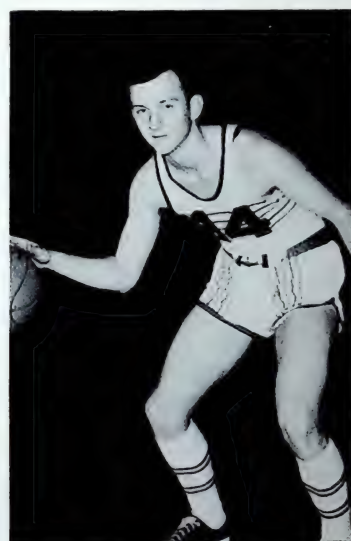

Setting up for the score.

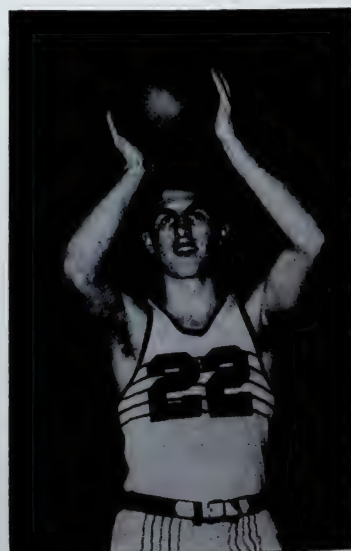

The Tyger cagers were Buckeye Conference Co-Champions in their second year in the league. The team opened the season by rolling to three straight victories. After a highly-touted Canton Lincoln handed the Bengals their first loss, they roared back with four consecutive Buckeye wins. Then the Sandusky Blue Streaks upset Senior High in one overtime period. The Bengals, in the next game, overcame a nine point deficit with 3:40 remaining to pull out a victory over Fremont Ross. Admiral King edged the Tygers by a single point, but our team set a school record by scoring thirty-seven points in the torrid final quarter. After losing two games, one to arch-rival Ashland, the Tygers swept to three straight conference wins. The Bengals lost their last game to Sandusky, thus having to share the Buckeye Conference crown.

Senior High's Tygers began the tournament season by knocking out Wynford and Upper Sandusky. Second-seeded Ashland eliminated the Tygers, who put in a splendid effort. This thrilling game went into three overtimes before the strongly-favored Arrows subdued the Tygers by one point.

Two points more.

This year's Tyger swim team was small in size but big in spirit. They had a tough season and finished with a rather unimpressive record. However, they had great enthusiasm and tried their best in every contest.

Although they won only two dual meets, they proved a surprise in several of their meets by doing outstandingly well when the competition was tough. The tankers battled to a tie for third place among a strong field of top contenders in the first annual Malabar Relays. At the Dennison relays, they placed fourth among eight teams although they did not have enough swimmers to enter every event.

Two of the top Tyger swimmers, Howard Forrest and Roger Gump, qualified for the state swim meet. Howard was eligible for State competition when he took a first place in the backstroke in the District swim meet by setting a new record of 1:04.4. Roger captured fourth place in the two hundred yard freestyle with a time of 2:06.7.

As a senior looked back through the windows on the past, he saw his first day at Mansfield Senior High School. He was a nervous freshman then, and he attended only in the afternoons as the school was on half-day sessions. Football season came and went along with Homecoming, Varsity Varieties, and the Freshman "Party." The class was ably led by Jim Berry, Marcy Stern, Tecca Wilging and Penny Gerber with Miss Margie Kauf and Mr. William Hailey as advisors. Because half-day sessions ceased the following year, the sophomores found themselves still at the bottom of the heap age-wise. The officers changed as Dave Beard, Tom Downs, Suzanne Weikert, and Vicki Zartman took over the positions of leadership in the class, directing the major project--the sale of candy. The junior year dawned fair as Richard Ferguson joined Dave, Suzanne, and Vicki as vice president on the slate of officers. "Camelot," the class's Homecoming, with its outstanding decorations, was a wonderful success, as lovely Queen Vicki Zartman reigned over the Homecoming festivities. But the year went by all too quickly, and it was time for "A Southern Vision," the Junior Prom. For many juniors this was their last activity at MHS, because the plans for a new high school had become a reality. Over one third of the class was to be the first graduating class of Malabar High School. For those who remained at MHS, there was the splendid production of Varsity Varieties, "Tinkering With Time", the Mansfield Relays with Carolyn Davis reigning as Queen, and the humorous class play, "The Poor Nut." Soon all was over--the enchanting night of the prom, Baccalaureate, and then Commencement. As our senior turned his thoughts through the windows of the future, he saw himself in further education and future jobs--a whole new world, an exciting new life.

SPECIAL MOMENTS

Set the earth reverberating with a mighty cheer!

"If Winter comes, can Spring be far behind?"

Reflections reflect the senior's reflections.

Oh! You beautiful dolls; you great big...

Awards depict achievement in athletics and scholarship.

WITH RESPECT

This year our country suffered a great loss in the death of its leader, a young and vibrant man. A dismal state of shock and apathy fell over the bereaved nation and the entire world as all peoples joined hearts in sympathy. Our words cannot express the greatness of this man, who not only served his country well, but also gave his life for it. His famous words will be quoted many times as a guide for Americans, both young and old: "Ask not what your country can do for you--Ask what you can do for your country."

---

There is still significance for our own generation in this solemn dedication by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow:

Thou, too, sail on, O Ship of State!
Sail on, O Union, strong and great!
Humanity with all its fears,
With all the hopes of future years,
Is hanging breathless on thy fate!

IN RECOGNITION

Throughout the year we worked to put together a book which would hold memories for each student in the school. We tried to represent, in one way or another, each activity from the first day in Senior High for the sophomores to the time of graduation for the seniors. Looking back, as through windows, we can see the past year and looking ahead we can dream of the future and all we want it to hold for us. We hope we have recalled some special moment or event for you to remember.

Much credit goes to the following for giving their professional help in producing this book:

Buell-Kraft Studio

Smucker's House of Portraits

Ohio School Pictures

General Litho Plate

The Richland Printing Inc.
